

Nicola Dalmonte, President of the Land Reclamation Consortium for the Emiliano-Romagnolo Canal (CER)

Biography

President of the 2nd level Land Reclamation Consortium for the Emiliano Romagnolo Canal (CER), agricultural entrepreneur in the fruit and wine nursery sector as co-owner of Vivai Dalmonte GeV in Brisighella (RA), member of the National Council of the National Land Reclamation Association (ANBI) and also of ANBI Emilia-Romagna, administrator of the Western Romagna Land Reclamation Consortium, also involved in the Coldiretti agricultural organisation as President of Coldiretti Ravenna, Vice-President of Coldiretti Emilia-Romagna and member of the Coldiretti National Flower and Nursery Council, administrator of the Coop. Centro Attività Vivaistiche (CAV) in Faenza.

‘In this climate of great uncertainty, water is an increasingly precious resource, and the Consorzio di Bonifica per il Canale Emiliano Romagnolo is a fundamental asset for the economy, as the water distributed for agricultural, industrial, civil and environmental uses allows us to maintain the levels of excellence in the agro-industrial and tourism sectors for which our territory is internationally renowned.’

